Re: Rona, et al. v. Trump, et al., No. 25 Civ. 3114 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

This Office represents defendants (the “government”) in the above-named action. We write respectfully to apprise the Court of two factual developments.

First, on June 5, 2025, the Secretary of State, pursuant to section 1(a)(ii)(A) of Executive Order 14,203, designated four judges of the International Criminal Court, thus subjecting those individuals to the sanctions set out in that Executive Order. See Dep’t of State, Fact Sheet: Imposing Sanctions in Response to the ICC’s Illegitimate Actions Targeting the United States and Israel, <https://www.state.gov/imposing-sanctions-in-response-to-the-iccs-illegitimate-actions-targeting-the-united-states-and-israel/>

Second, on the same day, the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Office of Foreign Assets Control issued seven new general licenses pertaining to the ICC. See OFAC, International Criminal Court-Related Sanctions , <https://ofac.treasury.gov/sanctions-programs-and-country-information/international-criminal-court-related-sanctions> (listing and describing general licenses).

Although we do not regard these facts as material to the pending motion for a preliminary injunction, we are writing to ensure the Court is fully informed. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

JAY CLAYTON
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
